

Natural sequences | All 11 original configurations

All 33 runs completed. The first four contrasts remove one module; remaining rows change several inputs.
Natural sequences show small, non-monotone differences: this chart does not establish universal module gains.